INTRODUCTION

LAGOS STATE IN THE NATIONAL CONTEXT

Lagos State (Yoruba: Ìpínlẹ̀ Èkó) is a state in southwestern Nigeria. Of the 36 states, it is both the most populous and smallest in area. Bounded to the south by the Bight of Benin and to the west by the international border with Benin Republic, Lagos State borders Ogun State to the east and north making it the only Nigerian state to border only one other state. Named for the city of Lagos the most populous city in Africa—the state was formed from the Western Region and the former Federal Capital Territory on 27 May 1967.

Geographically, Lagos State is dominated by bodies of water with nearly a quarter of the state's area being lagoons, creeks, and rivers. The largest of these bodies are the Lagos and Lekki lagoons in the state's interior with the Ogun and Osun rivers flowing into them. Many other rivers and creeks flow throughout the state and serve as vital means of transportation for people and goods. On land, non-urbanized areas are within the tropical Nigerian lowland forests eco region with natural areas containing threatened populations of mona monkey, tree pangolin, and hooded vulture along with a transitory population of African bush elephants. Offshore, the state is also biodiversity as there are large fish populations along with African manatees and crocodiles.

Lagos State has been inhabited for years by various indigenous ethnic groups, primarily the majority Yoruba people that live throughout the state but also the Ewe and Ogu peoples in the far west. As a result of migration since the nineteenth century, Lagos State also has large populations of non-native Nigerian ethnic groups with Edo, Fulani, Hausa, Igbo, Ijaw, Ibibio, and Nupe peoples among other Nigerian groups. There are also groups from outside of Nigeria's modern borders with the Saro (Sierra Leonean) and Amaro (Brazilian) groups being descendants of formerly enslaved people that returned to Africa in the 1800s with a longstanding Middle Eastern Nigerian community (mainly Syrian and Lebanese Nigerians) also forming a significant part of Lagos' population along with recent immigrants from Benin Republic, China, Ghana, India, Togo, and the United Kingdom. Religiously the state is also diverse as about 55% of the state's population are Christian with around 40% being Muslim and the remaining 5% following traditional ethnic religions or other religions

BRIEF HISTORY ON SURULERE

Surulere local government area is one of the twenty LGAs found in Lagos state, South-west geopolitical zone of Nigeria. The LGA comprises of several districts which include Ojuelegba, Shitta, Ogunlana, Orile, Ikate, Ibire, Adeniran, Ogunsanya, and Gbaja. The current estimated population of Surulere LGA is put at 645,713 inhabitants with the LGA hosting members of several ethnic groups. The Yoruba language is commonly spoken in Surulere LGA while the religions of Islam and Christianity are widely practiced in the area. Notable landmarks in Surulere LGA include the National Sports Stadium, Lagos, the Teslim Balogun Stadium, and the National Arts Theatre.

Surulere is a residential and commercial Local Government Area located on the mainland of Lagos in Lagos State, Nigeria, with an area of 23 km² (8.9 sq mi). At the last census in the year 2006, there were 503,975 inhabitants, with a population density of 21,864 inhabitants per square kilometer. The local government area is bordered by Yaba, Mushin and Ebute-Metta.

BRIEF HISTORY ON COKER AGUDA

Coker Aguda Local Council Development Area was carved out from surulere local government which covers jurisdiction areas from Aguda to Orile, surulere.

Coker Aguda shares boundary with surulere district and Itire-Ikate district which makes it the central point of surulere as a whole.

The district is characterized with different land uses. The district covers a land mass of 7.8km²

Coker Aguda, located in Surulere on the mainland of Lagos. It is under the Coker Aguda Local Council Development Area. However, there are a few traditional rites that take place here. The area is fairly serene with motorable roads and a fair supply of power.

Coker Aguda Local Council Development Area is a locality in Lagos State. Coker Aguda Local Council Development Area is situated nearby to Osho, and close to Orile-Iganmu.

AIM AND OBJECTIVES OF THIS STUDY

Aim

The aim of this project is to appraise the existing mosques and church at different locations within the scope limit of the district and identify the abnormalities of the properties for probable solution.

Objectives

- To help ensure that there is orderliness in the allocation of land for the various elements that makes a religious property.
- Ensure that proper planning standards are adhered to within the vicinity
 - To ensure that there is compatibility between the elements that constitutes the overall land use.
